

Support Services and Organizations

Numerous organizations and NGOs across India offer support services to women, including counseling, legal aid, shelter, and rehabilitation.

- Swayam: An organization based in Kolkata that works to prevent violence against women and provides support to survivors.
- Majlis: A legal and cultural resource center that provides legal aid and advocacy for women's rights.
- HAQ: Centre for Child Rights: While focused on child rights, HAQ also addresses issues related to violence against girls and young women.
- Sakhi: An organization that works to end violence against women in the South Asian community.
- Aangan Trust: Works to protect children in vulnerable situations, including those affected by violence and trafficking.
- Sneha: Provides support to women and children in distress, including those experiencing domestic violence.
- The Lawyers Collective: Provides legal services and advocacy for women's rights.
- Acid Survivors Foundation India: Supports survivors of acid attacks and advocates for stricter laws against acid violence.
